Who is required to give notification?

Persons under sixteen and persons under guardianship.

Persons under the age of sixteen and persons placed under guardianship are not permitted to give notification of moving abroad. Parent(s), guardian(s) and carer(s) are required to give notification for these persons.

Persons aged sixteen and seventeen

Persons aged sixteen and seventeen who no longer live with their parent(s), guardian(s) or carer(s) are required to give notification themselves. If a sixteen or seventeen-year-old is living with their parent(s), guardian(s) or carer(s), then his/her parent(s), guardian(s) or carer(s) are responsible for the notification.

Who is permitted to give notification?

The following persons are also able to give notification on someone else's behalf:

1. A parent and his/her child can give notification on one another's behalf if they are moving to the same new address.
2. Spouses can give notification on one another's behalf if they are moving to the same new address.
3. Every adult can give notification on behalf of another person who has authorized him/her to do so. Any such authorization should state that it is specially for the purpose of this change of address.
4. The head of a healthcare institute for patients who, for health reasons, are not able to fulfil their notification requirement.
